Testimonials

Yvonne Clay, Central Director
LANDSEC GUNWHARF QUAYS

“What an experience! Victorious delivers the kind of hosting we look for as a corporate partner—easy arrival, a warm, professional welcome, and an experience that delivers ‘money can’t buy’ memories. We moved effortlessly between the hospitality space, the VIP Garden Upgrade Area, and the wider site. The Pit Walk was a genuine ‘wow’ moment - walking the Pit Thrust in front of the Common Stage is an experience that stays with you. And The Tower was the perfect base: brilliant views, first class bands, and attentive, relaxed hosting allowing mingling with colleagues and family at Victorious, delivering a premium, seamless and extraordinarily unforgettable experience.”

Matt Green
PORTICO

“The pit walk is a genuine ‘money can’t buy’ experience and feeling the energy of the crowd is truly unforgettable. Following that with the view from The Tower, paired with great drinks and hosting, made for a world-class festival experience. We couldn’t recommend it more highly”

Simon Ingram

“Victorious offers an outstanding hospitality experience from start to finish. Entry is seamless, with a warm and professional welcome from the team that immediately makes you feel looked after. The Pitt Walk is a truly unforgettable, money-can’t-buy moment- I couldnt recommend this experience enough”

Dave Humphries
SHAPING PORTSMOUTH

“Victorious Festival really is a site like no other and has become an annual highlight for our corporate partners. From the moment you arrive through a dedicated entrance and receive a warm welcome from the team, the experience feels seamless and special.

Highlights include the backstage tour, side-of-stage access and the unforgettable pit walk, which offers a completely unique behind-the-scenes perspective of the festival. Watching the performances from the mixing tower, with its incredible view of the Common Stage, while enjoying complimentary drinks in a relaxed premium setting, makes it a truly “money can’t buy” experience.

What really stands out is the Victorious team’s attention to detail, creating an exclusive experience that goes far beyond a typical VIP festival day.”

Matt Barker, Head of Marketing
PORTSMOUTH FOOTBALL CLUB

“Victorious is able to deliver a premium experience that is genuinely one of the best I’ve ever had at a festival.

From arrival, the access and welcome were so easy, which immediately sets the tone. You feel looked after, but in a super relaxed way. The hospitality area strikes the right balance between comfort and atmosphere, a place where you can have a drink, chat, and spend time without feeling disconnected from the festival itself.

The location of the Gardens area works brilliantly. It’s easy to move between spaces and the wider site, so you get the best of both worlds without the queues. The Pitt Walk is a standout moment and The Tower is exceptional. Walking through the crowd and up to the Common Stage is a truly exclusive experience that you simply can’t replicate elsewhere. It reminds you you’re part of something really special in Portsmouth.

Overall, Victorious has created a premium offer that feels considered, effortless, and genuinely valuable if you’re looking to entertain, connect, and experience the festival at its very best.”
